ORDER ON OMNIBUS MOTION TO DISMISS MULTIPLE BAD FAITH ADVERSARY COMPLAINTS AND REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES<sup>1</sup>

On January 11, 2011, the Omnibus Motion to Dismiss Multiple Bad Faith Adversary

<sup>1</sup> In this Order, all references to "Section" are to provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. section 101 et seq. unless otherwise indicated. All references to "FRCP" are to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. All references to "FRBP" are to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

1 Complaints and Request for Attorney's Fees brought by U.S. Bank, National Association, as 2 Trustee for the Certificate Holders of LXS 2006-16N Trust Fund, its assignees and/or successors in 3 interest ("USB"), came on for hearing before the court. The appearances of counsel were noted on 4 the record. After arguments were presented, the matter was taken under submission.

5 On June 9, 2011, Carol Ann Einhorn ("Debtor") filed a voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy
6 petition. The case was assigned for administration to Joseph B. Atkins as Chapter 7 trustee
7 ("Trustee"). On October 10, 2006, Debtor's husband Arthur Einhorn purchased certain real 8 property – identified as 5250 S. Rainbow Blvd. Unit #1045, Las Vegas, NV 89118, APN 163-26-
9 214-08 ("Property") – through a secured loan from Countrywide Home Loans, Inc.
10 ("Countrywide"). The associated promissory note and deed of trust were purportedly transferred to 11 Bank of America ("BOA"). The Property is listed on the Debtor's Schedule "A" but is not claimed 12 as exempt.

13 On September 12, 2011, Debtor and her husband ("Plaintiffs") filed the above-
14 captioned adversary proceeding against BOA, USB and Mortgage Electronic Registration Service 15 ("MERS"). The complaint challenges the validity of the purported transfer of the interest in the 16 promissory note and deed of trust. The challenge is framed as a claim seeking a declaration that the 17 promissory note is unsecured and a claim quieting title to the Property solely in the name of the 18 Plaintiffs.

19 On November 14, 2011, USB filed the Omnibus Dismissal Motion under FRCP
20 12(b)(6) asserting that the Complaint fails to state a claim for which relief may be granted. On 21 December 8, 2011, Plaintiffs filed opposition asserting that USB does not have standing to seek 22 dismissal because it is not the defendant named in the Complaint.

23 Plaintiffs' response to USB's appearance in this proceeding is absurd at best and misses 24 the entire point of a quiet title action. The Complaint supposedly seeks a declaration that only the 25 Plaintiffs have an interest in the Property, but the one party who actually has responded to the 26 Complaint supposedly has no standing to appear. By denying USB standing to seek dismissal,

1 Plaintiffs essentially achieve the result they ultimately seek. If their approach is followed, then 2 arguably Plaintiffs would never be able to provide adequate notice of the very relief they seek and 3 any judgment would be ineffective.

4 More important, it is clear that Plaintiffs rather than USB are the party who lacks 5 standing to pursue the claims, if any, set forth in the Complaint. Plaintiffs' alleged claim against 6 BOA, USB and MERS, if any, arose before the commencement of this Chapter 7 proceeding and 7 constitutes property of the bankruptcy estate. See Sierra Switchboard Co. v. Westinghouse Electric 8 Corp., 789 F.2d 705, 707-08 (9th Cir. 1986). The claim was not disclosed on the Debtor's personal 9 property Schedule "B" nor was the Property claimed as exempt. The claim also was not scheduled 10 in the bankruptcy filed by the Debtor's husband and remains property of the husband's estate. See 11 In re JZ L.L.C., 371 B.R. 412, 419 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2007), citing Wood v. Household Finance Corp., 12 341 B.R. 770 (W.D. Wash 2006). The Trustee has not affirmatively abandoned the estate's interest
13 in the claim or the Property. Nor has an administrative abandonment occurred pursuant to Section 14 554(c). Both the claim and the Property therefore are property of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

15 Plaintiffs' commencement of the adversary proceeding without authorization of the 16 Trustee or the court therefore violated the automatic stay. While a debtor's interference or transfer
17 of estate property arguably should be addressed by a demand under Section 549(a), Debtor's 18 husband clearly violated the automatic stay as he is not the debtor in this bankruptcy case. As to 19 him, his act of filing the adversary proceeding is void ab initio. See Rein v. Providian Corp., 270 20 F.3d 895, 904 (9th Cir. 2001).

21 Under these circumstances, it is the Plaintiffs who are improperly before this court:
22 Plaintiffs never should have filed the adversary complaint because the asserted claims, if any,
23 belong to the Trustee.

24 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the above-captioned adversary proceeding be, 25 and the same hereby is, DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all further hearings and conferences scheduled in

1 this adversary proceeding are VACATED from the court's calendar.
